We gratefully acknowledge that we operate on the traditional lands of the Tongva, Tataviam, and Chumash people including the Gabrieleño, Fernandeseño, and Ventureño; members of the Takic and Chumashan language families; and other Indigenous peoples who made their homes in and around the area we now call Los Angeles. We honor their ancestors past, present, and future, and recognize their continued existence and contributions to our society.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Salar Mamani addresses the role of militarism in the ecological crises we currently face. Presented by CalArts MA program Aesthetics and Politics, and curated by Janet Sarbanes, The Ecofeminisms: Practices of Survivance series explores feminist intersections with ecopolitical issues, such as extractivism, Indigenous sovereignty, colonialism, war, and multispecies relations. Each installment in the series engages with leading-edge feminist thought on survival and resistance in this time of climate emergency.
